

The Values List

Twenty-eight cards in six families, the same ones the Life Goals App uses. Each card absorbs its near-synonyms and says which, so you are choosing between ideas rather than adjectives. Tick anything that lands; narrowing comes on sheet 2.

Your five

From everything you ticked, five. Then one of those five is your North Star: the one that wins when two of your own values disagree.

The five

A value you cannot say why you hold is usually someone else's. One line each.

Your North Star

One of the five. Not the noblest, the one that actually decides.

North Star

Where it is already being ignored

Name one thing in your current week that runs against your North Star. This is the line that makes the exercise cost something.
